

Serving the whole Community with Faith and Purpose

The blessed days of Dhul Hijjah are among the most virtuous days of the year — days filled with opportunities for worship, sacrifice, reflection and drawing closer to Allah. “There are no days in which righteous deeds are more beloved to Allah than these ten days.” (Sahih al-Bukhari 969). As we enter this sacred season, we ask Allah to accept our worship, strengthen our unity and allow our community to benefit from these blessed days. Ameen.
